The name SKIES Unlimited stands for the “School of Knowledge, Inspiration, Exploration and Skills.” SKIES Unlimited offers instructional classes that are not typically offered in a school or a child care setting, such as ballet, martial arts and guitar lessons.

The SKIES Unlimited Program in Stuttgart supports the Child, Youth & School Services commitment to families by enhancing options for development of children/youth through quality learning opportunities.

We offer instructional classes for children/youth in our Schools of Academics, Arts, Life Skills, and Sports. SKIES Unlimited is committed to creating an environment of excellence by providing quality classes by instructors who are experienced in their fields. Classes are offered for specific age groups ranging from 6 months to 18 years of age.

Payment is due at time of registration for group classes and due 1 March for private instructional lessons. Refunds are not authorized for withdrawal from SKIES instructional classes once the session officially begins. A two week withdraw notice is required for all private instructional lessons.

All participants must be registered with CYS Services. Register at Parent Central Services, Bldg. 2347 on Patch Barracks. Parent Central Services is open on Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

For more information please call Parent Central Services at DSN 430-7480/4047/ CIV 0711-680-7480/4047

Children and youth may enroll in a SKIES group class at Parent Central Services or online via WebTrac. New students must wait for open enrollment. Current SKIES students may enroll during the priority enrollment week at Parent Central Services to retain their space in their current SKIES Class. Spaces will be filled on a first come, first serve basis. Group class enrollment is for two months, unless otherwise indicated.

To register for SKIES Unlimited private music instruction please visit Parent Central Services, Patch Barracks, Bldg. 2347. Instruction is provided for piano, guitar, and electronic drums.
